CONVENTION NEWS

Philip Muskat, Past Commander of the Trojan Post sends us an interesting letter and informs us that our Comrades in Troy are on edge waiting for the time when they can entertain us in a style peculiarly Trojan.

Those who have been in Troy know what it means. Those who comprise our delegation will learn and those who miss this Encampment will lose the happiest two days that has ever been offered to them.

He enclosed a clipping from the Troy News. The Honorable Ben writes a very encouraging letter and encloses a similar clipping.

JEWISH VETERANS' CONVENTION PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

Mayor Clinton, Col. McCarthy and Rabbi Lasker on List of Speakers

Arrangements were completed recently at a meeting of David Chodikoff Post, J. V. W. R. at the Y. M. H. A., on First Street, for the national convention of the Jewish Veterans of Wars of the Republic, which will be held here July 4 and 5. Mayor Harry E. Clinton, Col. James A. McCarthy and Rabbi Hyman W. Lasker, will be the principal speakers at the convention.

Plans have been made for an outing and sight-seeing trip through the Hudson and Mohawk Valleys during the convention period.

Attendance at the convention will be large, according to present indications. Large delegations have made reservations from Kansas City, Chicago, San Francisco and cities in the South.

Among the notable delegates to the convention will be Commander-in-Chief Morris J. Mendelsohn and Col. Maurice Simmons, former New York State Com-

THE VICIOUS "JEW-STORY"

Statement of Col. Maurice Simmons, former Commissioner of the Board of Assessors of New York City, ex-Commander-in-Chief of the United Spanish War Veterans, and founder of the Jewish Veterans of the Wars of the Republic.

Anti-Semitism stalks with seven league boots when it tickles the ribs of the unthinking multitude. Garbed in the sheepskin of humor it steals through the risibilities of the common flock to take its toll of hurt and hatred. The anecdote about other races deals with failings that are lovingly venial or touches some minor foible, the leaven of which makes all the world akin.

On the other hand, in the "Jew-story" you feel the fangs of a lethal anti-racial venom. A criminal trait is isolated as the yellow gabardine of a race. We laugh at the story about the "darker" if it feeds the vulgar belief in the credulity of the "unbleached American," about the "lime-juicer" for its portrayal of the supposed mental camander of the United Spanish War Veterans.

Arrangements have also been made by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Post for a theatre party for the women delegates in connection with the outing. Veterans of Foreign Wars will observe open house for the delegates.

According to announcement recently, Philip Muskat, former Commander of David Chodikoff Post, will be backed by the local post for election to a national office during the convention sessions.

BAYONNE VETERANS NAME DELEGATES

Plans for Convention are Discussed at Meeting—Dr. Herman Speaks

Eleven delegates and three alternates to the convention of Jewish Veterans of Wars of the Republic in Troy, N. Y., July 2, 3, and 4, were recently elected by Bayonne Post, No. 18, at a meeting in the Talmud Torah synagogue hall on West Twentieth Street.

The delegates are Herman Feinberg, Harry Rockmaker, Dr. David D. Feinberg, Aaron Gotzen, Samuel Levy, S. Paul Epstein, Ben Levy, Ben M. A. Kline, Jack Weisberg, Ruby Cohen and Sidney Levy. The alternates are Meyer Meltzer, Jack Dvorin and Harry Rosenberg.

Dr. Irving L. Herman, inspector-general representing national headquarters, and adjutant of the local post, spoke on the subject of a Memorial Day observance. Action is to be taken on this matter at the Post's next meeting, when the Post will also move to join the Federation of Veterans' Associations.

DISABLED VETS READY FOR "POPPY DAY" SALE

Disabled veterans in the U. S. Veterans' Hospital at Kingsbridge Road and Sedgwick Avenue have almost completed the 700,000 "buddy poppies" to be sold on the streets of the city on Memorial Day.

Most of the patients are shell shock cases. The poppies this year will bear a tag with the name of the maker and his organization attached.

AN APPEAL TO REASON

Tolerance for the Jew, By the Jew

"NO JEWS WANTED," by the Jews, as well as Christians, is the cause of so many Jewish Gangsters and the cause of the hard struggle of our Jewish Girls.

If there is anything wrong with the Jewish Girl and Boy, now is the time to correct it, but if it is simply his Religion, better to convert him, than this tragedy of being outcast by his own race.

"AS YE SOW, SO SHALL YE REAP."

A. N. SPECTOR

A. N. Spector of Birmingham, Ala., writes an interesting letter but it seems that the Southland is not quite ready for a Jewish Veterans Post; on the other hand, advices from Poughkeepsie would seem to indicate that Louis Katz of 7 Morgan Avenue, that city, is going to give us a boost in the very near future. Harry H. Harris please take notice.

THE JEW IN PALESTINE

By Louis Tarter

"How did the Arabs get Palestine?" "They won it from the Romans; therefore, it belongs to the Arabs."

"Do the Arabs at present rule both Syria and Arabia as independent States?" "No! But we expect soon to have the French Mandate removed from Syria, so that we can have a separate Syrian State and have our own rule."

"Though the Arabs won Palestine from the Romans, they have lost it to the Turks. During this World War England has been recruiting able-bodied Jews from America and all Allied countries to fight under General Allenby in Palestine against the Turks. Jewish Battalions were formed in England of Jewish recruits of the world to fight the Turk under the English and Jewish flags; such legions as Solomon and David were formed who fought and won Palestine. This, I believe, would also give the Jew the same right to Palestine as the Arab had when he won Palestine from Rome. It was the Balfour Declaration, assuring a Jewish National Homeland to the Jews in Palestine, that encouraged Jews throughout the Allied countries and America to join forces with the British under the Jewish and British flags in the Legions of Solomon and David to fight against the Turk. The enthusiasm of fighting for their own country and the promise of Palestine on open declaration, during the war, helped greatly in winning Palestine from the Turk."

"That may be so, but we, the Arabians, had treaties with England made in 1915 and in the possession of King Hussein of Hejaz giving Syria, Mesopotamia, Palestine and all the Arabic world to the Arabs, to be made into one Arabic Kingdom. We fought against the Turks, who are of our own religion, with that idea but found in 1919 that we were given a Mandate instead. Had we known that at the start, we would have fought against the British and on the side of the Turks and not have had the Turks call us traitors. It was General Allenby himself who, after the war in 1919, said to an audience in London that it was with the help of the Arabs to a great extent that made it possible for the English to defeat the Turk in Palestine. If the Arabs would have known that Palestine was to be given to the Jews, they would never have fought against the Turk, but would have fought against the English."

"Is there any part of Palestine that the Arabs would allow the Jews in forming a Republic?" "Personally, I think, which may not be the Arabian opinion, although I am the head of the Arabian Commission and may talk for the Arabians, that the Sini Desert may be allowed the Jews for a Republic."

"Regarding the attack upon Lord Balfour, who had an official invitation by the French Government to visit Damascus, Syria—was that attack, in which he was stoned and threatened with his life and forced to make a hasty retreat from Syria, a protest towards the Jews or against Lord Balfour?" "It was not towards the Jews, but towards Lord Balfour."

"Because he drew up the Declaration of a Jewish National Home in Palestine."

"If Arabia and Syria were made one independent Arabian State, would the Arabs then consent to a Jewish Republic?" "No! The Jews can come and live in Palestine and have equal rights as all others, but the Arabs must have the controlling power. Although the population of both Syria and Arabia number around 20 million, the Arabs will insist that the Jews be in the minority in Palestine; as a whole, the Arabs have never mistreated the Jews and want to live with them friendly and peacefully, but will not recognize a Jewish Republic in Palestine."

We parted on friendly terms, the Emir graciously evincing a desire to see this interview before it goes to print, and when he read these paragraphs, attached his signature as evidence of approval.

(Signed) ARSLAN.

OLD TIMER'S NIGHT

Manhattan Post is proud of its old timers and the old timers are proud of Manhattan Post. All those in doubt of these two statements were fully convinced by the attendance and reception of our prominent and popular members on Old Timer's Night on Tuesday, April 26, 1927.

As the Commander expressed it, he felt it was an epoch in Manhattan Post's history. It proved again and again that the men who were leading the Post a generation ago were still actively interested in its doings and had their eyes constantly fixed on all happenings in Manhattan Post No. 1, Jewish Veterans of the Wars of the Republic.

It was a pleasing sight to see all these men form in line waiting at the Quartermaster's desk in order to pay off their dues for last year, and though it is a comfort to receive $186.00 in dues, it is highly regretful that our popular leaders could not find the time to visit their Post more than once a year.

Comrade Past Commander-in-Chief, Col. Maurice Simmons, assumed the Commander's station and designated at once the following Comrades to assume the following respective stations:

Past Commander Isidore Weill,
Senior Vice Commander.

Past Commander Isadore Freid,
Junior Vice Commander.

Commander-in-Chief Morris J. Mendelsohn, Chaplain.

Past Commander Leon Greenbaum,
Officer of the Day.

Comrade Max M. Giles, Officer of the Guard.

Past Commander Morris Florea, Color Guard.

Comrade Joseph Citron, Adjutant.

Comrade Pinkus Kurtz, Quartermaster.

Thanks are due to Comrade Isidore Weill for corresponding with each of the old timers and personally asking them to be present on that evening.

Comrade Past Commander Irving Coon did notable work in writing a personal letter to all delinquents of Manhattan Post No. 1. His letter brought fair results, and the members of Manhattan Post are glad to see the interest taken by this Comrade.

It would be difficult to mention all the old timers present, but with few exceptions they were all there, including even John Robinton and Harry Landau.

The meeting was opened in due form by the Past Commander-in-Chief, who very ably in his pleasant way smoothly conducted the meeting to the end. The regular business was gone through and many propositions for the purpose of retaining both the new and the old members were brought up and acted upon. Various reminiscences were recalled and in general all of us felt that that evening was one of the finest ever held by Manhattan Post, and the writer for one is looking forward to a recurrence of such a meeting in the near future.

All Past Commanders were called upon to speak and they all presented their views of co-operation with the Post and the Jewish Veterans of the Wars of the Republic.

After the formal business of the evening, the Ladies' Auxiliary to Manhattan Post were invited in. All were in full bloom and apparently enjoyed the invitation.

Commander-in-Chief Morris J. Mendelsohn then delivered a brief summary of the doings of National Headquarters and was heartily concurred in and applauded when he stated that he was a good Commander-in-Chief.

Thereafter (by the way this thereafter occurred at midnight) our Honorary Chaplain-in-Chief Rabbi Edward Lissman spoke in his beautiful and poetic way about things in general and appropriately called for peace between the striving elements in our organization. All were aroused to enthusiasm by these remarks which were sprinkled with rabbinical and worldly stories. The Old Timer's Night was then reluctantly compelled to adjourn, but that was only formal adjournment for the next step was a new social event brought about by the refreshments and well-known sandwiches, which were handed out in De Luxe fashion to each Comrade present, and thus this evening of evenings finally came to an end and final adieus were made.

PHILA. POST AUXILIARY

By Sarah Feldman

Philadelphia Post No. 13 is the only Post fortunate enough to have a home of its own. The Ladies' Auxiliary of this Post is very proud of the fact and is doing its utmost to help make the Post Home invitingly comfortable.

The dance that the Ladies' Auxiliary gave a short time ago was a wonderful success and the ladies are now financially capable of taking their first big step toward the accomplishment of what has heretofore been but a pleasant dream for the future. At the last meeting, a working committee was appointed which consists of five industrious sisters, two married women, who have already furnished homes of their own and are therefore thoroughly experienced and the other three, still single but very conversant on the house-furnishing problem.

It was decided that the front room on the second floor, being used more than any other in the house, would be the first to receive the attention of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The Committee is doing a lot of thinking, planning and working, so it can't be very long now before something happens and we shall let you know exactly what does happen just as soon as it takes place.

"ALL WORK AND NO PLAY IS VERY INJURIOUS TO BOTH MIND AND BODY."

The Auxiliary fully believes that the above statement which is so often seen in health books is true and, wishing for nothing more than the health and happiness of the Sisters and Comrades, they had a "Grand Party" Saturday evening, April 2nd 1927.

The Ladies' annual dance was a wonderful success, other smaller undertakings were all accomplished successfully, and the Auxiliary is growing larger, stronger and better. This success was gained only through the earnest efforts of the members and the sincere co-operation given them by the Comrades.

Sunday, April 3rd, we visited the Navy Yard Hospital. We brought with us plenty of cigarettes, picture postcards and magazines to distribute among the boys. The best part of it all was that we ourselves did the distributing and it certainly was interesting. The pleasant smiles and cheerful looks that we brought to the faces of the sick men as we walked through the different wards, certainly did more than repay us for our thoughtfulness.

Mother Moore led us through the wards and for each man she had a smile and a word. The Ladies of Post No. 13 are great admirers of Mother Moore and like nothing better than to help her in her work.

It took us over two hours to go through the hospital after which we were all tired but very happy. Mother Moore then invited us into her beautifully furnished Reception Room where we had a little refreshment after which she volunteered to show us around the Navy Yard.

The Philadelphia Navy Yard is a very interesting place in itself but it can be made more interesting by a good guide. Mother Moore can't be beat when it comes to being interesting, so we certainly did enjoy our walk through the Navy Yard.

When at last we were all seated on the trolley, "Homeward Bound," there couldn't have been anyone in all the world more tired than the Ladies' Auxiliary of Post No. 13, but we were very happy too; as we were positive that Sunday, April 3rd, had been well spent.

Our Auxiliary is actively engaged in a noble work among the disabled ex-service men. Why not have your wife, sister or sweetheart join the organization and become interested in its work?

Why not indeed?—Ed.

We congratulate this Ladies' Auxiliary and the Post—for such splendid activity—particularly on the stationery the ladies are using.

STATE NOW CARING FOR 1,430 VETERANS

Increase of 131 in Last Fiscal Year Shown by Report of Hospital Commission

(Special to The New York Times)

Albany, April 10.—The State's efforts on behalf of former service men have met with gratifying results, the annual report of the State Hospital Commission, now, the Department of Mental Hygiene, shows. At the close of the last fiscal year 1,430 veterans were receiving care in the State Hospitals for the Insane, an increase of 131 over the number at the end of the previous year. Of these patients the State was receiving reimbursement from the Federal Government for 815 in accordance with contracts entered into between the hospitals and the Federal Veterans' Bureau at the rate of $2 a day a patient.

It is expected that the State's efforts will be much more productive of good and lasting benefit upon the opening within a few months of the new veterans' unit now under construction at Kings Park State Hospital in Long Island.

Occupational training courses, hospital workers report in many cases, have changed sullen, morose or seclusive patients into happy and sociable ones.

The hospitals caring for the largest number of former service men are Kings Park, Manhattan and Central Islip, having 382, 34 and 150 patients respectively.

JEWISH VETERANS PLAN POPPY SALE

Bayonne Post No. 18, Jewish Veterans of the Wars of the Republic, will conduct a three-day poppy sale in Bayonne on May 28, 29 and 30.

Permission for this branch of the Post's activities was granted by the city commission at a recent meeting.

S. Paul Epstein is commander of the Post and a large committee is in charge of the plans for the street sale of the poppies, the sale of which will go for the relief of Jewish war veterans who need it.—From "The Jersey Voice," Bayonne, N. J.

capacity of our English cousin, about "Paddy" because it gives resemblance to a reputed fondness for the potion which first ingratiates and then inebriates, about "Sandy" for its accentuation of the uncanny thriftiness of the Scot. Always these racial facetise are wholesome. After the "steeplechase smile" fades from the face, no bitter taste lingers in the mouth. But mark, if you will, the sadistic glee generated by the "Jew-story." In the premier "gag" of the genus, the one that finds freest currency in Moronia, the Hebrew is invariably cast as the "fire-bug," either ludicrous or fiendish. What crime so loathsome as arson! For this felony, in which the perpetrator, reaching for illicit gain, wantonly jeopardizes human life, every civilized community expresses its horror in terms of the extreme penalization. Any overt attempt to stigmatize the Jew as an incendiary would be obviously futile. Serve the indictment, however, as the toothsome tale and there are jeers for the Jew who dares oppugn the vicious libel. Resentment, opines 'our benevolent Nordic neighbor, is unsportsmanlike. Quizzically the aggrieved raconteur queries, "Why are you Jews so supersensitive?"

Speaking not pontifically, but from intimate observation, may I venture the generalization that there is no more facile and insidious agency for the dissemination of anti-Semitism than this very fire-bug joke. While acting as Chairman of the Anti-Defamation Committee of the Kahillah (the Jewish Community) of this city, I was kept busy neutralizing its pernicious and protean manifestations on the vaudeville stage, the silver screen and in other foci of public interest. I speak therefore by the index.

In Wisconsin we have just been treated to one of its usual recurrences. The newspapers report that during the recent inaugural celebration, a legend of welcome, which hung above the entrance to the office of the State Treasurer, Sol Levitan, was compared in an official communication by the State Superintendent of Public Buildings, to "the sign of a Jewish fire sale." GOOD NEWS OF GOODMAN POST

A very encouraging letter reached us from Commander Maurice C. Lobert, of the Herbert J. Goodman Post No. 17, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Commander Lobert wrote us that he had just gotten back to Cleveland and was sadly disappointed to find the Post inactive.

We asked him to start again and at his solicitation sent a telegram to a meeting which he had called urging everyone present to stand by his guns and stick to the organization. They apparently agreed to do this and the meeting resulted in a general understanding that they would all get together and re-organize the Post. Comrade S. Berlin, of 34 East 116th Street, Cleveland, Ohio, was appointed Acting Adjutant for the Post until the re-organization is completed.

Commander Lobert, Comrades Friedman and Bernstein were appointed a committee for Memorial Day.

We congratulate these comrades on their display of courage and their willingness to continue in this good work and we hope to hear of a splendid, active organization before long.

Commander Lobert has interested himself in an apparent display of anti-Semitism on the part of a local school supervisor who, it would seem, discriminated against a Jewish teacher by refusal of his re-appointment. We have asked him to take up this matter with Senior Vice-Commander-in-Chief, A. I. Hausman, and we are confident that if there is any germ of anti-Semitism in this affair it will soon be rooted out.

COOLIDGE ON MINORITY RIGHTS

Excerpts from the Address at the United Press Association Dinner, April 25, 1927, by President Coolidge, speaking on the rights of minorities to live in peaceful enjoyment of their religious beliefs:

"It is peculiarly an American doctrine, now usually accepted in principle, if not adopted in practice by all civilized countries, that these are inalienable rights, that they ought to belong to all persons everywhere, and that it is the chief function of government to provide instrumentalities by which these rights can be secured and protected."

"... In that conflict between freedom and despotism, which is as old as humanity and which constantly recurs in one form or another both among ourselves and among other people, it has always been the policy of this government to extend its sympathy and, in so far as it lawfully could, its support to the side of freedom."

"... While it is well established international law that we have no right to interfere in the purely domestic affairs of other nations in their dealings with their own citizens, it is equally well established that our government has certain rights over and certain duties toward our own citizens and their property, wherever they may be located. The person and property of a citizen are a part of the general domain of the nation even when abroad."

FLAG DAY—150th Anniversary

Commanders will please assemble their respective Posts for the Flag Day Parade on Tuesday, June 14th, at 59th Street and 6th Avenue, at 7.40 P. M., with colors. This being the 150th Anniversary of the adoption of our flag. Let's all turn out.
