

The Jewish Veteran

FEBRUARY, 1948

ARTHUR SZYK, NEW CANAAN, N.Y.

Sun-warmed beaches are waiting for you only a few hours away from any major airport in the U. S. . . . Get your ticket today!

The calendar says February

in the West Indies it's June and by Flying Clipper you can get there in only a few hours

DAILY FLIGHTS
 FROM NEW YORK
ROUND-TRIP FARES AS LOW AS $180
 (plus tax)

• How would you like to get rid of your overcoat and galoshes for a few days? . . . Exchange storm winds and snow for sunshine and sea?

You can do it—easily—by calling your Travel Agent or Pan American. Big, comfortable Clippers fly daily from New York non-stop to San Juan . . . from Miami to all the West Indies . . . and (via Mexico) from Los Angeles, Nuevo Laredo, Houston and New Orleans.

Flying all the way on the World's Most Experienced Airline—you can go by Clipper from New York to Miami via San Juan, Puerto Rico . . . stop over, if you wish, in the historic Dominican Republic, mysterious Haiti and colorful Cuba . . . Through fare: $150, from New York.

PAN AMERICAN

WORLD AIRWAYS

Call your Travel Agent or the nearest office of—

THE JEWISH VETERAN