Stars and Stripes newspaper has a weekly column featuring art created by, and of interest to veterans. To have your work considered, please supply a color slide and a black/white photo of each drawing, sculpture, painting, etc., plus a brief personal and military history and photo of yourself. Short stories and poems will also be considered, which will be returned if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is included with the manuscript. Send to: Dan McCurry, Stars and Stripes, P.O. Box 1803, 40 G Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20013.

DEERS is looking for people who are eligible for certain Dept. of Defense benefits and privileges but whose records are neither complete nor up to date: 1) Survivors of a member of the Uniformed Service who died while on active duty or who retired eligible for retired pay at time of death; 2) Retirees who have waived pay, and their dependents; 3) Honorably discharged veterans who have been certified as being 100% disabled for Service-connected reasons, and their dependents. For further information contact your nearest military installation personnel office.

In Appreciation

On Wednesday, September 20, 1983, the cornerstone was laid for the West Point Jewish Chapel. PNC Stanley N. Zwaik headed the JWV delegation at the ceremonies, which marked the initial construction of the first Jewish Chapel at the U.S. Military Academy.

JWV of the USA is continuing to collect donations for the chapel's library and conference center. The following have recently made donations, as of October 12, 1983.

All contributions should be made payable to Jewish War Veterans West Point Jewish Chapel Fund and mailed to JWV National Headquarters.
