Praise for The Jewish Veteran

Dear Editor:

I want to thank you for that nice and interesting article you wrote about me.

I think you have the most important job in the national office putting together the J.W.V. Magazine every two months.

I read it from front to back of the magazine. I must have read about five of our interesting articles.

I enjoyed the back cover with the story of World War II hero Morris Eisenstein with seven decorations, a $6,000.00 bond for the National Museum of American Jewish Military History, and the capture of 124 German troops. He had a lot of guts.

Thank you again.

MAX WARSHAW

Some Words of Thanks

Dear Editor:

I wish to thank everyone for all the letters, Museum Certificates, and expressions of well wishes during my illness.

NJA Ron Ziegler Announces His Candidacy for National Commander

The Department of Pennsylvania is proud to announce the unanimous endorsement of Ronald Ziegler for the high office of National Commander of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States for the millennium year 2000-2001.

Ron has served as Commander of his Post, County, and Department. He has also served as chairman on all committees of these echelons, he has received the "Man of the Year Award from his Post, County, and Department.

On the national level he has been a member of the National Executive Committee, Chairman of the National Resolutions Committee and National Convention Co-chairman. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Museum of American Jewish Military History and has served as it's general counsel. Presently he serves as our National Judge Advocate.

Ron identifies with our members as easily as he wears the Cap of the National Organization. He believes wholeheartedly in the established precepts of our National Organization, while extolling the strength of our organization through increased membership - "Strength through Numbers."

As you can see by the above, there is no one who can match the credentials of our candidate. To lead us in the new century, not only has Ron served our organization for over thirty years, but continues to have input on major decisions that affect the day to day operations of our organization by serving on the Co-ordinating Committee.

We urge you r support of our Candidate, Ron Ziegler for National Commander.
